Making the world a better place for all beings

IMPORTANT EDUCATION

DID YOU KNOW?

Humans and other animals have free will

- Animals are sentient and have feelings, desires, own thoughts, and free will. We and other animals clearly demonstrate a tendency to flee from danger. All animals deserve to be free in nature.
- We do not need animal products or services that exploit animals, in order to survive, thrive, be healthy, have fun, or for any purpose. Leading nutritional associations such as British and American Dietetics Associations have stated that a vegan diet is sufficient for all humans.
- Part of Veganism is a plant based (zero cholesterol and high fibre) diet which may actually prevent various deadly diseases: cancers, heart diseases, diabetes, and climate change unlike zero fibre based animal products diet that harm us all.
- We also do not need wool, silk, fur, leather, feathers, zoos, aquariums, horse riding, hunting, animals in circuses, rodeos, pet trade, animal testing, besides animal meat, animal milk, eggs, honey, or any derivatives. Please do go Vegan by using alternatives that are Vegan as far as practicable and possible.

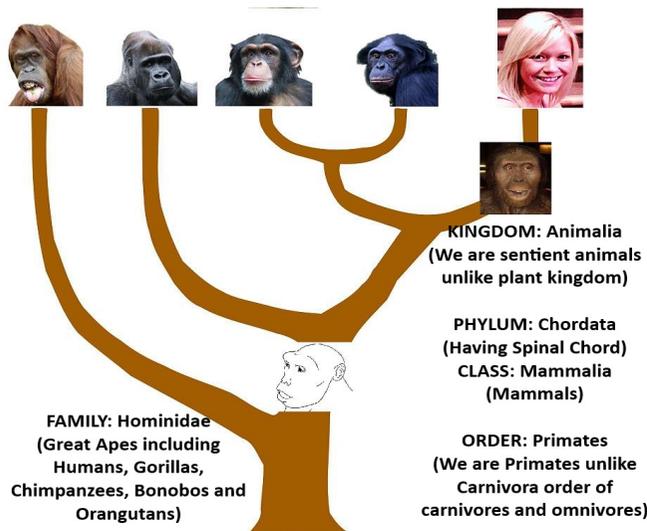

Were We All Deceived?

BE FREE OF LIES

Humans are not true Omnivores (like dogs) or 'top of the food chain' predators (like cats). Humans belong to the Primate order in biology and not in the Carnivora order. We are one of the Great Apes alongside Gorillas, Orangutans, Bonobos, and Chimps whose diets are 90 to 100 percent plant based.

No animal needs milk after infancy stage and certainly not the milk of another specie. We are not baby cows.

Being a highly evolved form of apes, our behaviour standards are higher as we can make the right moral decisions. Please go vegan today!

Animal Products Tremendously Harm Our Mind, Body, Spirit, Our Economy, Planet and the Moral Upbringing of Our Children

BE SENSIBLE NORMAL HUMAN BEHAVIOUR

LOVE, KINDNESS, JUSTICE

- Humans have natural instincts to love, care for, defend and protect others, especially vulnerable innocent beings who are likely to be hurt, intimidated, or oppressed. It is highly unnatural for us to want to pounce upon, hit, kill, abuse, or eat a dog, cat, pig, bull, cow, goat, sheep, fish, human or any other person.
- Animal farming is based on reproductive enslavement of victims, confined to breed babies after babies for exploitation. Keeping someone against their will is abuse, forced impregnation is rape, killing them against their will is murder and as most victims are babies and children, it is infanticide too.
- Discrimination based on DNA or genetic traits is an extension of racism called Speciesism, which is a prevalent injustice in society for centuries.
- Laws and cultures across the globe may not be upto the mark, e.g. marital rape and FGM might be legal in some nations, while slavery and women's discrimination were legal in the past. Killing witches was allowed once. Just because governments or religions allow injustices, they don't become condonable.
